

The Vermont Phoenix.

TWELVE PAGES

BRATTLEBORO.

Island park has been closed for the season. There will be no more dances or pictures this season.

Twelve employees of Donnell & Davis' millinery store went to Guilford Friday night, and a table was reserved for them at the chicken pie supper at G. P. Miller's.

Edward J. Fenton, jr., celebrated his fourth birthday anniversary Monday afternoon in his home on North Main street from 3 to 5 o'clock, when he entertained eight little friends.

The motor fire truck was called by a still alarm Wednesday to a house just off of Pine street near St. Michael's Roman Catholic cemetery, where a slight chimney fire had started. There was no damage.

Mrs. Emma Niles and Mrs. G. H. Niles gave a Red Cross social Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 in their home at 4 Union street. There were 16 present. The hostesses served refreshments.

J. Kirby caught his right hand in one of the self feeding saw which he was operating at the White River Chair Co. Saturday afternoon and the member was badly jammed. Dr. H. P. Greene dressed the injuries.

One of Peter Bigotti's delivery wagons collided with an automobile shortly before 6 o'clock Saturday night in the plaza opposite the railroad station. The automobile was owned by A. L. Billings. No damage resulted to either vehicle.

Fred C. Brown has laid a cement approach to the Centre Congregational church to replace the old concrete approach, making the grade conform to the new cement sidewalk, which is several inches higher than the old one. The new approach climbs one granite step in front of the church.

F. L. Adams of Townsend reported to County Game Warden E. H. Metcalf Oct. 24 that his son, Hugh C. Adams had shot a doe which was eating turnips on his farm. Warden Metcalf went to the place and after investigating the circumstances found the shooting to be legal and issued a certificate entitling Mr. Adams to the carcass.

Miss Matilda Croll was given a miscellaneous shower Friday night at the home of Mrs. Gerhard Tonsch at Blakelee street by the girls of Lamoysee Camp Fire. It took the form of a covered dish supper, the gifts all being in a covered dish. The tables were decorated with pink and white and pink carnations.

County Agent A. W. Swetson was in Marlboro Friday night to judge the exhibits at the annual fair of Marlboro Grange, and he says it was one of the best ever held in that town. Especially good showings were made of apples, canned fruit, vegetables and cake. Work of the school children also was displayed.

Prizes were awarded to the best exhibits in each class and the best general exhibit. E. S. Hall broke his left wrist Oct. 24 while at work at the Averill paper mill in Ashuelot, N. H., where he is making several additions. Mr. Hall and his men were engaged in jacking up a floor when one of the posts under the floor collapsed and fell fully toward Mr. Hall, pushing him into the cellar hole, striking heavily on his wrist. He is able to be at work.

In the current issue of the New England Homestead is an excellent two-column reproduction of a photograph of the three Brattleboro school girls who gave an exhibition of drying fruit and vegetables at the Eastern States exposition in Springfield. It shows Miss Evelyn Hamilton, Miss Margaret McKean and Miss Margaret Dunklee, also the dryer which was built by boys of Edwin M. Peeney's manual training class in the high school.

The funeral of Eugene L. Phelps was held at the home, 149 Western avenue, at 9:15 Friday forenoon, Rev. D. E. Trout of the Universalist church officiating. It was attended by many members of Sedgewick post, G. A. R., besides relatives and friends. The bearers were E. E. Althrich, Charles Allen, J. O. Johnson and W. C. Brooks. The body was taken to Chester on the 11:11 train and Henry post, No. 27, performed the G. A. R. services at the grave there.

The funeral of A. Leslie Brasher was held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of his brother, Arthur H. Brasher, 8 High Lane road, and was private. Rev. E. O. S. Osgood, pastor of the Unitarian church, officiated. The bearers were Harry E. Eddy, Rollin H. Brown, Harry R. Randall and Joseph E. Brookington. The burial took place in Morningstar cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brasher of New York and Miss Minnie D. Brasher of Woodmere, L. I., attended the funeral.

All of the Boy Scouts of the second Liberty loan will be entitled to one of the medals offered by the government, but the medals are not expected to be ready for distribution much before Dec. 1. There is much interest locally as to how the work of Brattleboro boys will compare with that of other towns in the state and many believe that they will be in line for one of the special flags which President Wilson offered to the Scouts of the town in each state which secured the largest amount, based upon the registration.

Franklin S. Pratt of Brattleboro, a well-known expert accountant, and Miss Mary F. Shakesher, librarian of the Brattleboro Free library, were married in Bennington Friday by Rev. George O. Mills, pastor of the Congregational church. The marriage took place in the home of the bride's brother, Town Clerk J. J. Shakesher, and the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt went to Boston on their wedding trip. They will return to Brattleboro in a few days. The bride's home is in Bennington, but she has been an efficient librarian here several years.

A rather unusual occurrence took place yesterday at the local navy receiving station when twin brothers enlisted in this arm of the country defense. The young men are from Brattleboro, Lincoln D. and Leon M. Adams. Another young man from the same place to enlist was Alvin D. Wright. All three signed up as apprentices seamen, second class. They will be transferred to the training station at Norfolk, Va., at once. Hugh B. Jones of Montpelier was physically disqualified on account of being color blind. Burlington Press Press of Oct. 25.

A number of the farmers in the vicinity of Sunset lake are planning to post their lands against hunting.

The regular quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held this evening in the vestry after the weekly prayer meeting.

Mr. Wales will meet the children and parents at the Masonic temple Saturday afternoon, Nov. 10, at 2:30, when arrangements will be completed for the formation of dancing classes.

When work on the sidewalk in front of the Barber building is begun it will be for a walk 10 feet wide, as many have advocated and stakes have been set providing for a wide walk.

A service of communion was conducted at the Home for the Aged Sunday afternoon by Rev. Richard H. Clapp and Deacon George H. Clapp of the Centre Congregational church.

News has been received from Donald Kibbe of East Longmeadow, Mass., of his safe arrival "somewhere" in frequent visits in Brattleboro in the home of Mrs. Jennie Bemis.

A still alarm at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon called the firemen to 5 Maple street, where an oil stove had been toppled over, but before they reached the place the slight blaze which it started had been extinguished. The damage was slight.

John L. Johnson of 215 Elliot street has received a letter from his son, Guy E. Johnson, who is a member of Company A, 103rd Infantry, announcing his safe arrival in England on Oct. 6. On October 15 the command which he is with was to march through London.

Brattleboro persons who were interested in the playground congress to be held in Milwaukee next month will be interested to know that the congress has been given up, as the government has called on all playground workers for assistance in the war camp community recreation service.

The late Eugene L. Phelps, father of Frank E. Phelps and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, also left two children by a former marriage, William L. Phelps of Somerville, Mass., and Mrs. Annie M. Zscheff of Brookville, Mass., and three grandchildren, Robert S. and Clarence H. Phelps and Rita M. Zscheff.

Barney S. Nicholman, men's and women's clothing merchant, against whom an involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed with the clerk of the United States court, E. S. Pla several weeks ago, has just filed his schedules. He has liabilities of $14,772.04 and assets of $8,969.17, of which $150 is claimed exempt.

Officers were elected Sunday by the Brotherhood class of the Centre Congregational Sunday school. Edward C. Crosby was re-elected president. Other officers elected were Secretary and treasurer, George M. Clay; membership committee, Walter A. Gilbert, chairman, George L. Dunham and John F. Kall.

Mrs. Fred H. Coombs of 52 Canal street was the successful contestant for the Free sewing machine given away by the Quality Furniture Co., Tuesday. The Free sewing machine offered to the Red Cross society was not given away, on account of the refusal of the management to send a representative body to receive it.

When the Sunshine library, which was loaned to the Niantic Vacation House, was returned this summer, the following books were missing: Pollyanna, The Green Patch, Rose of the Garden, Dixie Heart, Glenside and together. Persons who may have these books are asked to kindly return them to the chairman of the library committee, Mrs. C. W. Cushing, 11 Central street.

Some time ago George W. Clapp of Brattleboro sent a contribution to a tobacco fund for Belgian soldiers, and he has just received an acknowledgment, showing not only that the contribution reached their desired destination but also that the recipients appreciate and express their thanks for them. The letter was from Leonard DeVolder, chauffeur armee Belge, En Campagne.

The young people of Esteyville have organized a Loyal Workers' society and meetings will be held each Sunday night at 6 o'clock in the Advent Christian church. Following are the officers elected: President, Lewis Colton; vice president, Earl Taylor; secretary, Ruth Howe; treasurer, Arlene Baker; lookout committee, Mrs. R. G. Boyd; devotional committee, Miss Esther Brownell; flower committee, Mrs. Z. Trombly.

Pocahontas council was entertained Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George Brookington in their home at 35 Chestnut street, there being 65 present. The council quartet, E. J. Lavelle, John Graves, Bernard Colburn and George O'Connor, rendered several selections which were much appreciated. During the evening some of the company indulged in card playing. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

Liverman M. M. Tucker has brought suit against L. C. Bradley of Putney, a member of the Bradley corporation, to recover $190 for damages to a carriage in an accident in "Little River bridge" Sept. 2. Service was made on Mr. Bradley by Deputy Sheriff F. L. Wellman, and Walter E. Parker of Putney became surety for Mr. Bradley. It is alleged that while the lively team, in charge of Fred Marshall was standing in the bridge Mr. Bradley's automobile ran into the carriage and tipped it over with disastrous results. The suit is brought through the office of Attorney A. V. D. Piper.

Miss Bernice R. Pike, stenographer in the office of the Holstein-Friesian Register company, fell Tuesday morning about 11 o'clock from a high step ladder and injured her arm between the wrist and elbow. Miss Pike was on the top step putting away some boxes of stock, when she lost her balance and fell to the floor. A large paper roll, which she endeavored to take hold of to save herself from falling, fell upon her head, her arm, her side and injured. Dr. H. P. Greene was called and took her to the Memorial hospital.

Brattleboro women should take warning from a trick that has been worked in New York state. Men claiming to be clothed with authority have demanded that they be shown the stock of canned goods in various households and after counting them have stated to the housewives that the government will allow only a certain amount of food to be stored in each household and have calmly walked off with the excess. The government has made no such regulation, and anyone who attempts to work such a trick may be stamped at once as an impostor.

The women of Bingham chapter, O. E. S., will meet this evening in their rooms in Masonic temple to work on Red Cross knitting.

Lysander Lord has traded his house on Chestnut street for a farm in Putney owned by Albert Johnson. Mr. Lord will move soon to Putney.

A meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of St. Michael's Episcopal church will be held at the parish house this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The student nurses of the Brattleboro Memorial hospital training school held a Halloween party Wednesday in the building adjoining the hospital, which was appropriately decorated for the affair. Later in the evening refreshments were served in the hospital.

Protective Grange instructed four candidates in the third and fourth degrees Wednesday night. The third degree was worked by the woman's degree team with Mrs. Mary Robbins master, and the fourth degree was worked by the regular officers. Halloween refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Brattleboro lodge, N. E. O. P., held a very pleasant social in Grand Army hall Wednesday for the benefit of the Red Cross. Five hundred was played, Mrs. Albert Smith and Julius Wilbur winning first prizes and Mrs. Archie Winchester the consolation prize. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

The national surgical dressings committee of the Red Cross shipped Wednesday a box containing 2,108 dressings. This committee will have a bridge and five hundred party in the Vermont Wheel club rooms next Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock, the proceeds to be used for buying material for dressings. Tickets will be sold by the committee and may also be obtained at Randall & Clapp's jewelry store.

Miss Flossie Ober entertained her Sunday school class of the Baptist Bible school Tuesday evening in her home on Green street. 13 being present. The party was a Halloween social, the house being trimmed with decorations appropriate for the season. Miss Ruth Gay received a prize in the pumpkin seed game. Miss Ethel Irish also received a prize. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was lighted with jack-o-lanterns.

The Knights of Columbus gave a whist party and dance Tuesday evening in their hall, which was attended by a large number and was an enjoyable occasion. The first prizes at whist were awarded to Jerry Curtin and Miss Bridie Curry, while John Cavanaugh and Miss Bridie Curry won the consolation prizes. Music for dancing, which lasted until midnight, was furnished by Leitinger, Davenport and Jones.

The Vermont Auto Sales corporation has hired the store in Emerson block on Elliot street, formerly occupied by the Wells bakery, and will use it for an office and salesroom, conducting a service station in quarters in the rear of the so-called Waterman house just across the street. This will give the concern increased facilities for handling its growing business in Premier and Hupmobile cars.

While riding a bicycle on Canal street Sunday afternoon, Milton H. Pierce, 15, who lives with a sister at 12 Horton place, ran into an automobile owned and driven by Hermenegilde Charland, receiving a slight scalp wound as a result. The front wheel of the bicycle was smashed. Mr. Charland says he tried to dodge the boy, but was unable to do so. Young Pierce was taken to the Memorial hospital, where his wound was dressed by Dr. H. P. Greene. He was able to go home Monday.

Nearly 30 people enjoyed the entertainment given Wednesday in the little schoolhouse in the Barber district under the direction of the teacher, Miss Helen Smith. The building was effectively decorated and lighted, and among the numbers on a well-rehearsed program that were especially effective were a recitation and song by Elliot Barber, a folk dance and a weird ghost song with a startling finale. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served, and both teacher and pupils were given much credit for the success of the occasion.

The marriage of Dr. Edward C. Goodell of Shelburne Falls and Miss Mildred R. Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Reed of Monroe Bridge, Mass., took place Wednesday morning in the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Harrison L. Packard, pastor of the Shelburne Falls Congregational church, performed the ceremony. The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of taupe colored velvet. The bride is a niece of Clarence W. Reed and William A. Wilcox of Brattleboro. Dr. Goodell recently received a commission as lieutenant in the dental reserve corps.

FARMERS TO POST LANDS.

Hillside Club Members to Protect More Than 3,000 Acres, Mostly on Top of Dunmerston Hill.

The Hillside Farmers' club, through its executive committee, has voted to post lands against hunting, trapping and trespassing, and many of the club members and land owners are engaged in posters so that there will be more than 3,000 acres protected in this way. Most of the land on the top of Dunmerston hill, south and east from Sunset lake and down Hillside into the limits of Brattleboro will be posted. The club intends to post according to law and then to enforce the law.

SEIZES TRAPS AND SKINS.

Violations of Mink and Muskrat Law in Rawsonville and at Lowell Lake—Deadfalls Destroyed.

County Fish and Game Warden E. H. Metcalf has been doing some scouting the past week to discover what he could relative to illegal trapping of mink and muskrats, as the season did not open until yesterday. At Rawsonville, in the town of Jamaica, and at Lowell lake in the town of Londonderry, he took 15 steel traps and eight skin traps, and stored three deadfalls. Two boys who were implicated were taken before their parents, and they promised to obey the law in the future.

You may not have noticed it, but none of the boys who have been exempted from the draft are wearing the button which indicates such exemption.

Card playing is a social device which enables uninteresting people to endure one another.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

William B. Vinton went to New York Sunday night.

Attorney Frank E. Barber has bought a new Buick sedan car.

Attorney General H. G. Barber went to Montpelier Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Lovett have moved from 10 Brook street to 7 Eels court.

F. L. Taft and family moved Tuesday from 25 Pearl street to 67 Canal street.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Scott went Monday morning to Boston to stay until Wednesday.

John MacDonald of Camp Bartlett, Westfield, Mass., spent the week-end at his home in town.

Charles E. Cattanch of Highland street is confined to the house with a quinsy sore throat.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Filion of Winchester, N. H., visited relatives in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Mack of Austin, Ill., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mack of South Main street.

Helen M. Littlefield of Rockport, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. E. Trout, for two weeks.

Lieut. A. C. Ratte of Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in town.

Mr. and Mrs. August Hollander have returned from a visit of two weeks with friends in New York.

Mrs. Emily Schorling, trimmer for Mrs. G. H. Smith, resumed work Monday after a few days' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Goodhue of Westminster West visited their daughter, Mrs. A. F. Schwenk, over Sunday.

Mrs. May Morris, who has been ill, has gone to Greenfield to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Pierce.

Thomas Fleming returned Sunday to New Haven, after having visited at his home on Oak street a few days.

Mrs. P. C. Paresau of Worcester and Mrs. Joseph Bascom of St. Albans are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Menard.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Leitsinger, Miss Minnie Leitsinger, Ervin French and Dwight Fairman spent Sunday in Westford.

Ex-Gov. John A. Mearns and party of guests of Rutland were registered at the Brooks House Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. E. R. Lynch was in Bellows Falls Saturday and performed four operations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids.

Miss Mary Barrett went to Springfield Saturday, thence to Turners Falls, where she remained over the week-end.

Samuel Hamlin of Leampeter, N. H., visited his sister, Miss Caroline Hamlin, at A. W. Stowells in West Brattleboro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlin Hale and Mrs. Jane Bishop of Brattleboro were guests Sunday of Mrs. Bishop's niece, Mrs. H. G. Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cushing, Mrs. E. W. Sharp and Mrs. E. E. White visited at M. H. Cheney's in South Newfane Sunday.

Miss Alta Denuiss of the Holstein-Friesian association, went Saturday to her home in Herndon, returning Monday morning.

Mrs. E. S. Tubbs, who has been seriously ill in her home on South Main street, remains about the same. Miss McKenna, nurse, is caring for her.

Miss Florence Ames has left a clerical position in the town clerk's office and entered the employment of the Lunham Brothers Co. Monday morning.

Beverly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spaulding, jr., came Wednesday from Fitchburg to visit in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spaulding, sr.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Whittier of Montpelier spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Barber. They are Mrs. Barber's father and mother.

Miss Mabel Warren returned Saturday from a few weeks' visit with her uncle, Merton A. Warren, in Boston and went Sunday to her home in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Taylor moved this week from Western avenue from the house which he recently sold to Frank E. Barber, to E. M. Angier's house on Prospect street.

Mrs. Frances E. Clark was called Monday to Chester on account of the serious illness of her brother, Malcolm Baldwin, who has hardening of the arteries and heart trouble.

Frank Foster has finished work for Horton D. Walker, electrician, and has gone to Springfield, Mass., to take a similar position. Mr. Foster had a room at L. H. Barber's while in town.

T. J. Bagley, grand warden of the N. E. O. P. of Bellows Falls was at the home of Warden M. J. Larrabee Monday night to confer with him in regard to the public meeting to be held here Monday, Dec. 10.

P. E. Dyke, agent for the Vermont Accident Insurance Co. of Rutland, went Tuesday to Rutland to attend the annual banquet and lecture to agents to be held in that city. He returned Wednesday night.

Assistant Attorney General Joseph S. Matthews of New Hampshire has been seen about town on several different occasions recently on business in connection with the dispute over the state boundary line between Vermont and the Granite state.

Malcolm Farnsworth of Bellows Falls, formerly employed by W. S. Pratt in Brattleboro, has written from North Yakima, Wash., that he has enlisted in the United States marine corps. He was about to leave for the Mare Island training camp in San Francisco bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley of Reading, Mass., formerly residents of Brattleboro, who had been on a motor trip, were guests two days of Mrs. Lucia Foster of Organ street. Mr. Kingsley formerly was employed by the Estey Organ company in the pipe organ department.

Mrs. Lilla J. Timson of New Haven, Conn., who had been spending the summer in Claremont, N. H., was a guest over Sunday at H. E. Bond's on Linden street on her way to Claremont. Her daughter, Miss Hazel Timson, teacher in Greenfield, also was a guest there over Sunday.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Solomon Nesbitt is here from Schenectady, N. Y., to spend a few days.

Miss Lenore Ayers has taken a position with the Fred W. Putnam insurance agency.

Mrs. B. T. Riley spent Monday with friends in Greenfield, returning that night.

W. B. Smith is having a vacation from his work in the office of E. L. Hildreth & Co.

Mrs. Ralph Moore of South Newfane is visiting her father, Barney Pratt of Spruce street.

Mrs. C. H. Smith of Holoke, Mass., spent the week-end in town with her mother, Mrs. J. Cain.

Mrs. E. C. Chandler, who has been ill since Sunday in her home on Horton place, is slightly better.

Mrs. Harry McCluskey of Worcester, Mass., is a guest this week of her cousin, Mrs. C. E. Mann.

Mrs. Ida E. Davis and daughter, Miss Vera Davis, visited over the week-end with friends in Townshend.

Mrs. R. H. Boutelle returned Tuesday from Fitchburg, where she visited since Saturday with Mr. Boutelle.

Mrs. George Wilcutt and daughter went Wednesday to Winchendon, Mass., to visit her sister until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Nash of the family at the Home for the Aged have gone to Jericho for an indefinite stay.

Miss Davis, nurse, has returned from her home in Springfield (Vt.), where she had been since early in May.

Alonso J. Brackett visited in Gardner, Mass., over the week-end with his sister, Mrs. B. A. Stanley, and family.

James Hopkins and Harry Meeking, who have been at races with Crosby's, are in Brattleboro for a short stay.

Brainard Taylor is out again, after having been in the Memorial hospital, following an operation two weeks ago for appendicitis.

Miss Charlotte Barrett and Miss Mabel Gustafson went Wednesday to Hartford, Conn., on business for Donnell & Davis, milliners.

Miss Dora Thayer, after visiting her sister in Pennsylvania several weeks, has returned and will open her dining room next week.

Mrs. A. E. Hadlock and daughter, Bernice, of West Townshend visited early in the week with her sisters, Miss Addie and Miss Grace Morse.

Mrs. Samuel Adams, who has been in the Memorial hospital several weeks ill with typhoid fever and complications, is slowly improving.

Truman E. Wallace, who had been visiting in Springfield, Mass., with relatives and in Herndon with his mother, has returned.

Mrs. A. W. George and daughter, Martha Virginia, have returned from a stay of three weeks with Mrs. George's parents in Rupert.

Mrs. Lilla Herriek of Northfield, Mass., is attending today a district meeting of the Woman's Relief corps and is a guest of her sister, Mrs. E. C. Crosby.

Mrs. Mollie C. Huntington returned to her home Monday from the Memorial hospital, where she had been four weeks following an operation.

Mrs. Carrie Dean of Castleton, who was visiting officer at the Woman's Relief corps district meeting Wednesday, was a guest of Mrs. H. I. Bangs.

L. H. Barber was in Bellows Falls Saturday to deliver two $100 Victrolas. He also delivered Friday a $250 Edison diamond disc machine in Ashuelot.

Miss Ruth Fifield, trimmer for Mrs. G. W. Brooks, went Tuesday to her home in Putney for a few days' stay, called there by the death of a relative.

Mrs. A. D. Reynolds returned Monday night from a week's stay in Boston with her daughter, Miss Violet Reynolds of New York, who met her in Boston.

Mrs. H. B. Freeman of Chicopee Falls, Mass., who had been visiting in the home of her brother, Jason Bushnell, a few days, returned to her home Monday.

Mrs. Annah Gale, who sustained a shock last week while attending a county convention of Baptist churches held in West Brattleboro, is a little more comfortable.

Mrs. Grace Miles of Mineville, N. Y., who visited her husband at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., came Monday to be a guest of Mrs. A. G. Arcand several days.

E. Allen has hired the five-room apartment in Crosby block and will move there from Canal street Nov. 15. Mr. Allen is proofreader with the Vermont Printing company.

Miss Margaret McGinn, stenographer in R. C. Bacon's office, has taken a position as teacher two nights a week at the night school of the Clawson-Hamilton business college.

Miss Helen Green, matron of a hospital in New York, went there yesterday after being in town a week, called here on account of the illness of an aunt, who underwent an operation in the Memorial hospital.

Jerry Cudworth and sister, Miss Elizabeth Cudworth, arrived yesterday from San Francisco and are guests at Linden Lodge. Mr. Cudworth had been in California about a year and Miss Cudworth joined him there in April.

Fred Cain of Boston has taken a position with Bond & Son, undertakers, beginning work Wednesday morning. Clifford Breslin, who had been employed there, finished work there and went to his home in Rutland.

Grand Lecturer Christie B. Crowell reviewed the work and made corrections at the district Masonic meeting held in Rutland Tuesday afternoon and evening. Among the guests was Grand Senior Deacon Sanford A. Danforth.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pierce and son of Hartford, Conn., visited Wednesday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Pierce of Canal street. They left here yesterday for Neponset, Mass., where Mr. Pierce has a position with the government in charge of electrical supplies.

Among those who attended sessions of the American Board institute in Bellows Falls Monday were Miss Emma J. Gregg, Miss Florence Hemmaway Wells, Mrs. W. A. Gilbert, Rev. C. B. Atwood, Rev. A. V. Woodworth, Rev. Richard H. Clapp, Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Whitney, Miss Beanie L. Farnum, Miss Mary D. Houshaw and Miss Emily R. Clapp.

BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL.

Miss Lucille Howe has finished work in the Huntress Adams Co.'s store.

Charles Holdens moved Wednesday from 17 Thomas street to Maple street.

Mrs. Allyn J. Crosby of Springfield (Vt.) was a guest Wednesday at E. C. Crosby's.

Mrs. Marion Knight is out again after having been ill three weeks in her home on High street.

Mrs. Charles Bacon of Elm street will go Saturday to Boston to remain over Sunday with relatives.

Ralph Gould of Company 1, Camp Bartlett, Westfield, Mass., is at home on a furlough of four days.

Secretary H. E. Stiegler of the board of trade was in Springfield, Mass., Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Arthur H. Braser accompanied Mrs. Charles Braser to New York Tuesday, where she will visit two weeks.

Dewey T. Hanley of Montpelier, state purchasing agent, was a business visitor in town Wednesday and yesterday.

Mrs. G. O. Abbott of Springfield (Vt.) came yesterday to visit in the home of her son, Sherman Abbott, a few days.